

New Women Bible Study Series

I am so excited to be starting a new Bible Study series, which will begin Saturday, June 5th. We will be meeting on Zoom for our initial meetings, with the hope of becoming a hybrid class when the church building opens. I have attached the Syllabus for the class with this email. Most of you have the book already. If anyone still needs the book, please contact me ASAP so I can help you make arrangements to get the book. I still have two books left and can get more if needed. Our class will meet regularly at 11:00am on Saturdays. However, the first class will be at 3:00 pm due to the Communion Drive-up Event. I hope each of you will drive to the church next Saturday, June 5th between 11:00am and 1:00pm to receive your Communion elements and then meet me for class on ZOOM at 3:00pm. I will send the ZOOM invite to all of you on Thursday evening and again on Saturday morning (just for good measure). For the first class please read pages IX-XX and pages 1-10 in your book.

Again, I am so pleased to have you join me again, or for the first time, in this Women's Bible Study Series. I look forward to seeing you all next week.

Sincerely,

Deaconess Lisa M. Bruce
